MUMBAI

RESTAURANT: THE TABLE, COLABA

REVIEWER: ACTOR LISA HAYDON

“From the chevron floor to the split-in-two dining area, I took an immediate liking to the restaurant. A great thing about The Table is that while their service is extremely prompt, they do not ‘over service’ you, which I find annoying in some restaurants. I loved the Papaya Salad, with deep fried onions on top. With hints of mustard spouts, cabbage, mint with peanuts that added the required crunch and texture, it’s possibly the best salad in town! While I didn’t quite enjoy the Veg Tacos (the freshness I was hoping for was missing), I highly recommend the Grilled Red Snapper with a coconut cream drizzle. One of my favourite dishes was the Chicken Wings. They debone the chicken wings and mash them into cubes and drizzle barbecue sauce over them...yum! For dessert, you must try the Salty Caramel Ice Cream. Garnished with popcorn, the ice cream has this smokey flavour, and the peanut caramel gives it that sugary dessert kick I love, along with a crunchy texture! It’s truly epic!”
